

Mika Vehviläinen

Senior Vice President & General Manager

Mika Vehviläinen is the Senior Vice President & General Manager, Core Networks of Networks, Nokia Corporation. He has been with Nokia since 1991, during which time he has held several management positions in sales and marketing, strategy & business development, and the general management of Networks' product businesses in Asia, North America, and Europe.

Mika was born on 1961 in Finland. He holds a Advanced Management Program (AMP) degree from Harvard Business School and a Master of Science (Economics) degree from the Helsinki School of Economics. Mika is married with three children. He likes sports and outdoors playing tennis, skiing, and hiking.

June 2006